ERUA Summer School 2023: Innovation & Social Engagement for Europe

The ERUA Summer School "Innovation & Social Engagement for Europe" is designed for 50-80 Bachelor students of all fields who seek to discuss current challenges of the European society and further learn how to transfer their scientific fields into innovations and social projects. The aim of this interdisciplinary Summer School is for students to explore scientific trends that offer innovative problem solutions to social, political, economic and environmental issues and in a next step engage with their own research projects and their potential for social engagement in the European context.

Teaching Opportunity:

For the first week of the Summer School (July 24th to July 29th 2023) we are looking for lecturers (PhD, Postdocs, Professors) who would like to offer a seminar addressing one of the following topics, introducing students to these fields from your scientific expertise.

Sustainability, Migration, Artificial Intelligence, Challenges in the Digital Age, European Inequalities, Multilingualism, Political Fragmentation and Radicalization, the Aftermath of the Pandemic, and more...

The seminar will take place from Monday to Thursday, 3 hours per day-

The language of the Summer School is English.

Since the Summer School will be open to all disciplines, please be aware that your seminar should be designed for a heterogeneous student group.

Payment & Travel Costs:

We can offer a small honorarium for 12 teaching units (45 mins per unit + (oral)exam/paper/project supervision etc.) Grading will not be necessary, since students can only pass/fail the Summer School.

Travel and accommodation costs can be covered by Erasmus+ Teaching Staff Mobility of your home university.

All lecturers will receive a teaching certificate and free admission to the cultural excursions.

Send a CV and short teaching proposal (max. 500 words, indicating the format you would like to teach and your availabilities) to alina.2.stockloev@uni-konstanz.de.

Submission Deadline: February 7th, 2023.
