Social Innovations for Transformative Society

Day 1 - 25th June
Room L-102

11:00 - 12:30 Transforming Research with Open Science Initiatives (I)

This session explores the impact of open science on research, its management and beyond. It includes discussion on the importance of research data management, and its accessibility challenges. Additionally, it highlights the role of open science in certain areas and its contribution to institutional reforms. These presentations emphasize the importance of open science in enhancing research practices and fostering academic innovation.

MS Teams link

Maximilian Heber (University of Konstanz) and Goran Sekulovski (Paris 8 University)
Open Science Live Meet-Up: Panel Discussion on (Social) Developments related to Open Science in ERUA and Future Perspectives

---

12:30 - 14:00 Lunch break Rotonda hall and II-233

14:00 - 15:30 Transforming Research with Open Science Initiatives (II)

This session explores the impact of open science on research, its management and beyond. It includes discussion on the importance of research data management, and its accessibility challenges. Additionally, it highlights the role of open science in certain areas and its contribution to institutional reforms. These presentations emphasize the importance of open science in enhancing research practices and fostering academic innovation.

MS Teams link

Moderator:
Maximilian Heber (University of Konstanz)

1. Sonja N. Kralj and Matthias Landwehr From Planning to Reusing: Researchers' Research Data Management Needs along the Research Data Lifecycle at ERUA Universities

2. Vincent Godard Open Science and accessibility in geography, yes, but at what cost? A concrete example in higher education in Social Sciences

3. Steven Barnes, Marta Szastok, Małgorzata Para, Ewelina Smoktunowicz, Magdalena Leśnierowska, Anna Maj, Julie Prescott and Monika Kornacka Open science in the design, development, and implementation of accessible, evidence-based digital therapeutics for mental health: Highlighting needs and social determinants of outcome to address the digital divide

4. Hristijana Stoimenova (New Bulgarian University) and Eduard Marinov (New Bulgarian University) Open Science and the Reform Universities' Paradigm: Some Ideas from the ERUA Experience

ERUA
European Reform
University Alliance

Co-Founded by the European Union

Re:ERUA
European Reform University Alliance
Research and Innovation

Fourth ERUA Annual Summit 2024

Social Innovations for Transformative Society

Day 2 - 26th June
Room L-102

9:00 - 10:30

Migration Governance and Legal Standards in Modern Europe

This panel session addresses contemporary challenges in migration governance, focusing on innovative governance strategies, the reconciliation of migration and asylum laws with human rights standards, the impact of migration on public security.

MS Teams link

Moderator:
Kristian Bankov (New Bulgarian University)

1. Norbert Cyrus (European University Viadrina). Nurturing innovations in migration governance: Critique Guided Designing

2. Lyra Jakuleviciene (Mykolas Romeris University), Evelina Staikova-Mileva and Deyana Marcheva. Reconciling new concepts of migration and asylum law with human rights standards in contemporary Europe

3. Danguolė Seniutiene (Mykolas Romeris University). Migration as a Challenge for contemporary public security: Lithuanian case

4. Anzelika Baneviciene (Mykolas Romeris University). Irregular migrants in the context of the readmission agreements

10:30 - 11:00   Coffee break   Lobby beside I-201

11:00 - 12:30

The Power of Migration Narratives: Historical and Contemporary Perspectives

This panel session delves into migration narratives, media representations, and ethical frameworks. These presentations provide insights into the complex interplay of migration, media, and ethics in today's society.

MS Teams link

Moderator:
Isabel Palomo Dominguez (Mykolas Romeris University)

1. Mercedes Yusta Rodrigo (University of Macerata) and Marta Lopez Izquierdo (University of Macerata). Exile and humanitarianism at the crossroads of 1939 and its current repercussions: the CAREXIL-FR and REFEHUMAN projects

2. Kristian Bankov (New Bulgarian University). Narrative weaponization of migration in the frame of Populism 2.0

3. Justine Toms (New Bulgarian University). Migration and its representation on social media in Bulgaria.

4. Gintarė Kriauciunaite-Lazauskiene (Mykolas Romeris University). Ethical Frameworks and Advertising: An Exploration of Symbolism and Language in the Context of Social Innovation and Conflict

ERUA
European Reform
University Alliance

Co-Founded by
the European Union

Re:ERUA
European Reform University Alliance
Research and Innovation

12:30 - 14:00 Lunch break   Rotonda hall and II-233

14:00 - 15:30 Solutions for Countering Migration Mis(dis)information and Enhancing Public Discourse

This panel session addresses the challenge of disinformation surrounding migration. The presentations provide solutions for countering false narratives and promoting informed public discourse on migration issues.

MS Teams link

Moderator:
Aurelija Puraite (Mykolas Romeris University)

1. Ildiko Otova (New Bulgarian University) and Evelina Staikova (New Bulgarian University). Reversing the narrative: emigration as a resourse for social change. Bulgarian case.

2. Volodymyr Tsybka (Mykolas Romeris University, Kyiv National Linguistic University (senior lecturer). Building Societal Resilience in the Face of Information Warfare.

3. Vladimir Komarnickiy (Mykolas Romeris University). The problem of excessive criminalization of speech in Europe.

15:30-15:45 Coffee break   Lobby beside I-201

15:45-17:30 MIGRATION: Integrating Refugees: Strategies, Challenges, and Support Systems

This session delves into the multifaceted challenges of integrating Ukrainian refugees, highlighting the innovative urban strategies adopted for their inclusion, the psychological adaptation issues they face, and the comprehensive supportive efforts aimed at enhancing their well-being and resilience.

MS Teams link

Moderator:
Nomeda Gudeliene (Mykolas Romeris University)

1. Vaida Aleknaviciene (Mykolas Romeris University). Social Work Challenges While Working With War Refuges from Ukraine

2. Nomeda Gudeliene (Mykolas Romeris University) and Grazina Ciuladiene (Mykolas Romeris University). Supporting the Well-Being of Ukrainian War Refugees: the case of Mykolas Romeris University (moved ot G31)

3. Igor Lyubashenko (SWPS University of Social Sciences and Humanities). Navigating the Migration Maze: What Makes Polish Cities Bet on Innovative Strategies to Integrate Forced Migrants from Ukraine

4. Maria Baran (SWPS University of Social Sciences and Humanities), Halina Grzymała-Moszczyńska (SWPS University of Social Sciences and Humanities), Marcelina Zjawińska (SWPS University of Social Sciences and Humanities), Larysa Sugay (SWPS University of Social Sciences and Humanities), Irena Pujszo (SWPS University of Social Sciences and Humanities), Viktoriia Naritsa (SWPS University of Social Sciences and Humanities), Yuliia Ovsiienko (SWPS University of Social Sciences and Humanities) and Julia Niedziałek (SWPS University of Social Sciences and Humanities). Psychological resilience of Ukrainian refugee women in Poland - results of a qualitative study

5. Alina Proskurnia and Oleksandr Vakulenko. Psychological Adaptation Issues Among Ukrainian Refugees and Internally Displaced Persons During the Russian-Ukrainian War