

Jose David Venegas Masís (Tafira Campus)

University, Field of Studies: ULPGC, Labor Relations and Human Resources

Previous experiences in ERUA events/activities: none yet

Their hobbies and interests shortly and major?: I am a person passionate about adventures, nature, and music, in addition to having the ease of social relationships, so social leisure is one of my strengths, I like to constantly meet new people and make different plans that take advantage of routine

Why did you become an ambassador for ERUA? What inspires you?: I want to contribute my grain of sand in the sector of study and social change in our alliance, acquire new knowledge and learn new experiences that develop great potential in our community, in order to progress and evolve both personally and collectively.