Name, University, Field of Studies. - Julia Kryzstofowicz, German and Polish Law, Internationales Betriebswirtschaftslehre (International Business Administration)

Your hobbies and interests - My hobbies include learning Spanish, dancing, traveling, reading, meeting new people, and climbing. These activities bring me great joy and allow me to continually grow.

What inspires you? What inspires me about my hobbies is the opportunity for growth and connection. Learning Spanish opens up new cultures and communication. Dancing lets me express myself and connect with others through movement. Traveling broadens my perspective and fills me with awe for the world. Reading transports me to different worlds and enriches my understanding. Meeting new people brings fresh ideas and friendships. Climbing challenges me physically and mentally, pushing my limits and rewarding me with a sense of achievement.

Why did you become a student ambassador for ERUA? I became a student ambassador for ERUA because I wanted to engage more with people from different backgrounds

Previous experiences in ERUA events/activities I participated in the ERUA exchange at Viadrina University and I went to the European Youth Parliament Event in Berlin as an ERUA representative.
