

Nicolas Woroszylo

USWPS Wroclaw; Social and organizational psychology

No previous experience with ERUA.

skiing and kitesurfing (+ being an instructor in these sports); reading (mainly psychology books); I love travels; I am a fan of AI (scientifically and in practical use); decision psychology; creatively improving the world.

I became an ambassador for ERUA because I wanted to connect with other students from abroad, travel, improve my English skills; and as support in the implementation of intercultural research, and work for the future of science.
