

Ema Čibirkaitė

- Field of Studies: Business English and Communication.
- Previous experiences in ERUA events/activities: None, since I have only recently learned about it.
- Hobbies and interests?: Apart from work and studies, I enjoy spending time in nature: riding a bike, hiking, and exploring new places. I am interested in getting to know different cultures, that's why I deeply value traveling and meeting new people from diverse backgrounds.
- Why did you become an ambassador for ERUA? What inspires you?: I became an ambassador for ERUA, because our values align. I cherish the ideas of equality, diversity, openness, sharing ideas, and creating a sustainable future together. What inspires me is the idea of students from different backgrounds uniting and working together to improve higher education.
