

Jasmine Mae Rimando Cabigas

ERUA Student Ambassador

Field of Studies: Biomedical Engineering

Hobbies and interests: Among my main interests, I highlight my passion for science communication; I am particularly interested in new technological advancements in the healthcare field.

Motivation to become an ambassador for ERUA: My motivation for becoming an ERUA ambassador stems from a desire to develop my leadership and public speaking skills and, above all, to build a strong network of contacts with international students and universities.